MUSKEGON HEIGHTS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, INC

PURPOSE:

The Muskegon Heights Alumni Association is authorized by Muskegon Heights Public Schools Board of Education to organize the Districts graduates, former students and supporters; and to develop, encourage their lifelong involvement with the district, and each other through the sponsorship of relevant programs.

The Alumni Association will therefore seek to create, develop and foster programs, encourage individual group and community interest, and participation in support of the Districts academic, athletic, music/band programs and other extra curricular activities, which are recognized as valued delivery systems of the Districts overall education process.

MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission of the Alumni Association is to promote involvement and participation of its members in the planning and sponsorship of relevant programs and activities, which support and enhance the Muskegon Heights Public Schools Mission...“To educate students to become productive, responsible citizens.”

The Alumni Association will, by virtue of the Districts mission and historic attendee and graduate client base, bring increased value and esteem to its individual members in recognition of their successes and the Muskegon Heights Public Schools as their origin.
