

10 GREAT REASONS

to consider the

MUSKEGON HEIGHTS PUBLIC SCHOOLS

There are many reasons to consider the Muskegon Heights Public Schools for your child's education! Here are just ten:

1. Our students are achieving! Our schools continue to improve their academic NCLB status. Strong support services help insure that all of our students learn and grow.
2. Our school district is small enough to give students personal attention, yet large enough to offer a variety of learning opportunities.
3. Our new Math & Science Academy supports new heights in academic achievement.
4. Our graduates continue on to college and advanced learning opportunities. Just this year, the Muskegon Heights Class of 2007 earned over a quarter of a million dollars in scholarships.
5. Our staff is working closely with academic experts to continue the focus on student achievement.
6. Our schools are safe and healthy environments for learning.
7. Our exceptionally caring staff maintains up-to-date instructional skills to help all students learn.
8. Our music programs, particularly our choir and band, regularly win local and state honors.
9. Our winning athletic program offers students the chance to achieve on the courts, as well as in the classroom.
10. New partnerships with area colleges, businesses and organizations will benefit our students today and tomorrow.
