5. REPORT FROM THE ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT

Presentation from Shauna Hunter of Pathfinders
Pathfinders is an after school program that started about 22 years ago in Muskegon Heights. Pathfinders was the only after school program at one time now there are many. Pathfinders cooperates the afternoon program through family and youth. Pathfinder's mission is to engage and motivate students of every race. Mickie Wallace founded Pathfinders due to the violence in Muskegon Heights. He was aided by the Methodist church providing a safe place. We are looking for a community center possibly the Muskegon Heights Board of Education. Pathfinder is managed by Ms. Hunter. Ms. Hunter has communicated to many other agencies that would support Pathfinder being at the Muskegon Heights Board of Education. Community Center is good for at risk youth, crime prevention and as an investment in the community. Board president asked for Ms. Hunter to submit her plan in writing. She stated she needs to see the building before submitting the plan. Funding sources includes the United Way, Community Foundation, Gerber and a few private sources. Shauna Hunter has been in the community for a long time.
